

For Immediate Release December 6, 2003

(Vancouver, BC) Straight from the Entertainment Capital of Canada, Kimberley Beaudoin, Vancouver based stand up comedian, will be heading to LA to Pitch a brand new TV show called Kimberley's Comedy Corner January 30, 2004. Back from her trip in Banff Alberta for the Banff Television Festival in June of this year, Kimberley has been in pre-production with her comedy series 4 years and now is heading international with her new hit series. This new TV show will focus on the comedic, musical and artistic talent of the West Coast, and more specifically our Olympic City, Vancouver Canada

Kimberley knows that laughter is the best medicine, and now the doctor is in, Kimberley is ready to make house call across the nation and around the world..

(QUOTE FROM KIMBERLEY)

Kimberley feels that BC comedians don't seem to get as much exposure as comedians do from other parts of the country. "I've performed in clubs all across this country," says Kimberley. "I've met some great comedians from the Maritimes and Montreal, but the focus is still on the comedians coming out of Toronto. No one really gets a peak at what we have to offer out here. This show will be their chance to see what we can do."

This is not Kimberley's first television venture. She has performed on WTN She's so Funny has been seen locally on Vancouver Television and City TV, and appeared in Standing Up a documentary about up and coming comedians. At 34, Kimberley's own stand up comedy career has taken her from one side of the country to the other. Born in Vancouver, Kimberley has a new spin on the West Coast and has come up with a show that is guaranteed to make you laugh! Get ready for Kimberley's Comedy Corner
