KIMBERLEY'S COMEDY CORNER LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

(Vancouver, Canada) – Vancouver comedian, Kimberley Beaudoin has finally launched her long awaited website, www.kimberleyscomedycorner.com. This is the place to get the latest scoop on what Kimberley Beaudoin is up to – and she's up to an awful lot. Interviewing other local celebs, searching for the best coffee in BC's Lower Mainland, hangin' out at a local Vancouver hot spot, upcoming gigs, and even producing her how TV show, it's all on kimberleyscomedycorner.com.

Having performed on WTN She's So Funny and appeared in Standing Up, a documentary about up and coming comedians. Kimberley has also appeared locally on Vancouver Television and with local Vancouver comedy troupe, Laff Riot Girls.

Kimberley's own stand up comedy career has taken her from one side of the country to the other. Born in Vancouver, Kimberley has developed her own west coast style of comedy that incorporates her every-day life as a single mother and entrepreneur. She's had the dates with the Mr. Rights who takes you on vacation and DON'T BRING YOU BACK! She's also gone into pitch meetings with a peanut butter kiss on her cheek from her son. According to Kimberley, "this is life and if you can't laugh now when will you?"

This website is the next step in the grand plan for Kimberley Beaudoin. Log on and see what's coming!
