~ LAUGHTER IS THE BEST MEDICINE TO HELP FIGHT BREAST CANCER ~

SPONSORED BY THE RAYMOND BURR THEATRE

(New Westminster, BC) – On Thursday, May 20th, Kimberley's Comedy Corner hosts a night of laughter to help raise awareness for breast cancer. Local comic, Kimberley Beaudoin brings some of her funniest friends to the stage at the Raymond Burr Theatre in New Westminster in support of "Breast Friends" – a 5-woman team determined to raise $10,000 for the "Weekend to End Breast Cancer".

Kimberley's friends in fun include Kelly Brandow, The Foxy Morons Improv Troop, Ardell Fitzpatrick, Sweet Soul and the electric talents of Carter Hortie.

Lee Ann Keple, Natasha Viens, Kelly Brandow and Heather Johnson are the Foxy Morons, a Vancouver based improv troupe that want you to figure out which ones are foxy, and which ones are morons. Precious, Cora and Babs of Sweet Soul have fused Vaudevillian theatre with hilarious burlesque antics, creating a ferociously spicy stage show. Ardell Fitzpatrick, founder of the Laff Riot Girls, has been delighting audiences around North America for over 15 years. With over 550 shows under her belt she's still going strong. Carter Hortie has opened shows for Bob Cat Goldthwait, and is simply addicted to stand up comedy. He loves laughter and those who have seen his show, love him!

"Through laughter we hope to heighten awareness and raise much needed funds to put an end to breast cancer," stated Kimberley Beaudoin. "Although we support this cause annually, we truly hope that this year will be the year that pivotal changes will be made, and researchers will find a cure and put an end to this deadly disease once and for all."

Tickets are $10.00 and available by calling 604-298-7170 or 604-437-5522. Doors open at 7:00 pm and showtime is 7:30pm - Raymond Burr Theatre located at 530 Columbia Street, New Westminster.
